Bible Readings for Caregivers

As a member of the body of Christ, 'if one part suffers, every part suffers with it' (1 Cor. 12:26). If we listen through the pain, walk with the person through troubled times, and present a word of hope in Christ, we offer Christian caring. The Spiritual Importance of Care

Like many “topical” subjects, the Bible does not have a chapter devoted to caregivers. But the Bible is full of verses about caring for those who cannot care for themselves. These people are usually defined as being “sojourners,” the “fatherless,” and the “widows.” The first two groups are self-explanatory.

LCMS, LCC and NALC compile three

The Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod has joined with the Lutheran Church—Canada and the North American Lutheran Church to compile a three-year plan of daily Bible readings and a year-long series of weekly readings on Martin Luther’s approach to the Scriptures. The daily readings are taken from the lectionary which divides much of the Bible into three years worth of readings. If you complete the daily readings each day for three years, you will read 15 ...

Lectionary Series: Scripture Readings

The goal of the Daily Lectionary is not to read through the entire Bible each year. Rather, two readings of 15-35 verses each are provided for each day, one from the Old Testament and the other from the New Testament. Under this arrangement, nearly all of the New Testament and approximately one-third of the Old Testament are read each year.
